

North Carolina Philanthropy Conference Scholarship

The NC Philanthropy Conference attracts 500+ fundraising professionals from nonprofits across the state of North Carolina and surrounding areas. The sessions are often CFRE-approved and are led by industry leaders who present in dynamic, interactive breakout sessions. The conference attracts fundraising professionals, executive directors and other nonprofit staff members from small, grassroots organizations to large universities and foundations who serve the residents of North Carolina.

For information about the event, visit: www.ncphilanthropyconference.org

One scholarship will be awarded annually to cover the AFP member registration cost and travel stipend ($250).

To be eligible for this scholarship, the applicants must:

- Be an active member of AFP Charlotte (attend meetings on a regular basis)
- Preference will be given to applicants who serve on an AFP Charlotte committee (so be certain to indicate your current and previous committee service on your application)
- Submit a one-page newsletter article describing what you gained from the experience within a month of attending the conference
